

THE JULIETTE LOW STORY

Once upon a time there was a little girl name Juliette Low who lived in Georgia and loved to ride horses. After she grew up, she went to London where she met Lord Baden Powell, who founded the Boy Scouts. She was fascinated by the work he was doing. She studied with him awhile and decided to found a Troop of Girl Scouts, for the little girls who liked to ride horses in Georgia.

So Juliette Low said good-bye to the Boy Scouts in London and came home with the ideas that Lord Baden Powell gave her. She formed a group of little girls who liked to ride horses and be together, into a Troop of Girl Scouts. And they loved it so much that the idea spread and now there are Girl Scout Troops all over the world.

Aren't we glad that a little girl named Juliette Low from Georgia who liked horses, went to London and met Lord Baden Powell, the founder of Boy Scouts, and came to start the wonderful work of Girl Scouts.

When the narrator reads the words that are underlined the girls do the following actions

Little Girls = stand and giggle

Juliette Low = curtsy and say "be my friend?"

Georgia = wave and say "Hi ya' all"

Horses = ride a horse

Lord Baden Powell = bow and say "How do you do"

London = sing "London bridge is falling down"

Boy Scouts = Make Scout sign and say "Be prepared" (only pointer and middle finger for BS!)

Girl Scouts = Make Scout sign and say "On my honor"
